

Fees for weddings, baptisms & funerals – 2018

Note: This is a summary of the main fees payable for weddings, baptisms and funerals at All Saints, Cawood, based on the statutory fee tables and Diocesan guidance. It is not exhaustive, and on occasion, additional charges may apply.

Items included in the standard charges for which a separate figure is quoted in the description (eg. organist's fee) relate to the provision of services which are strictly optional, but which are very commonly required. If any such services are not required on any particular occasion, the relevant amount(s) should be deducted from the charge shown.

Fees may be paid:

- by cheque (payable to "PCC of All Saints, Cawood") or
- by bank transfer (sort code: 40-52-40; account no: 00029205). To help us identify the payment, please include the relevant surname(s) as the reference for the payment, if space permits (eg "Smith/Jones wedding"; "Baptism - Smith "; "Funeral - A Jones").

Weddings

Service in All Saints church	Amount
Standard charge (covers: publication of banns, marriage service, organist's standard fee (£50), contribution to cost of heating plus services of vergers (£30), and marriage certificate issued on the day.)	£554.00

- choir (if providing music during the signing of register – otherwise, no charge)	£25.00
Service at another church	Amount
Publication of banns (including issue of certificate of banns)	£43.00

Baptisms

No statutory fees are payable for a baptism. The following charges relate to the provision of optional services, where required by the parents.

Item	Amount
Organist's fees:
- standard fee; or	£50.00
- increased fee where a professional video / audio recording of the service is being made	£100.00
Certificate of baptism	£14.00
Contribution to cost of heating plus services of vergers	£30.00

Funerals

The fee for burial or interment of ashes “on a separate occasion” applies where the burial / interment does not take place on the same day as, or on the day before or after, the funeral service in church.

Statutory fees are not payable where the deceased is a still-born infant or a child aged below 16. However, where there is a service in church, the fees for organist / verger / heating will still apply where these services are required, unless waived by the PCC.
